7 Conclusion
Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.
Your Uranus Forecast

The planet Uranus charts the path of innovation and discovery in our lives, not what stabilizes and binds us (Saturn), but what liberates and frees us, where we can look for a break-out experience and some light at the end of the tunnel. This planet shows how we can be different and bring some variety and change into our lives, and this forecast helps to map out opportunities for independence and improvement.

This forecast is about how the planet Uranus figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. The planet Uranus indicates change and novel ways it might come about, opportunities for a new view of things, a way out of the box. We hope you enjoy it.

Public Interest
Moon Square Uranus (Wax)  Transit to Transit
A shift or turning point here, from a more personal to a less personal perspective, as you take on the role of psychoanalyst, able to see and have insights into your own feelings. It is easier now to distance yourself and to let go of what used to be felt much more personally. This is a more mature viewpoint.
Critical Insight

You now have insight into insights, and a better view of what moves you and/or the public mind, in general. Observations of this kind that allow separating the wheat from the chaff, culling what has meaning from what is just noise. You have greater emotional insight, but now with some distance.

Challenge Authority

Plans with great originality or inventiveness are stalled by everyday obstacles that stand in their way. They must be dealt with, and workarounds should be easily forthcoming. Still, there could be a sense of obstructed freedom and individuality to be dealt with. Moving forward is indicated, so stick to it. The time for planning is coming to an end, and it is time to start dealing with all the hassles of making those plans real.

Mind Block

Here we are looking at what remains, what you have culled from your insight into your own emotional nature, and that of all that you would call your support structure. You should be down to the nitty-gritty on this one, and out of the way of the wind. If not, then time to give up more ground yet, and be content with even less.

Core Insight

This is the point of boiling it all down and extracting what are essential insights, from what is inconsequential, and relates to looking into the nature of the mind, whether that is purely psychological on your part, or relating to the public mind — the seed essence of ideas.

Innovative Ideas

Flashes of new insight, into the emotions, about your own mind or the mind of the public, and the past. Perhaps more like feelings, these flashes light up the inner sky, exposing whatever is there, at least for a moment. They stick with you.

Innovative Plans

Various insights into your own psychology, the mind, and whatever is close to you, family, your entire support network, collect and turn into ideas and plans that can be carried out and tested in the real world.

Working Insights
Sun Sextile Uranus (Wax) Transit to Transit

Getting original or new ideas in place must first run the gauntlet of the paying the piper - whatever stands in their way. Energy is available to you now to work through these demands, and it is far easier to negotiate them, one at a time, then it is to take action against them and get mired in opposition. This is the price that must be paid to bring something new or original into the world. Put up with it, and keep your eye on the prize.
