Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Leo

You can come on a bit bigger than life here and be entirely believable, as life's your play and you're expected to be playing a lead role. A sunny smile that comes easy will get you everything, but it will also be expected even when it's raining, so be ready to play your part to the hilt.

Midheaven in Aries

You can get a reputation for impulsiveness here, so be careful where you make your moves. Being the first in and first out will gain you profits in business but not in love, so deploy yourself accordingly. If you mean to move forcefully, be prepared to back it up and don't be a paper tiger. Lightning strikes require a plan for follow-through.

Natal Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Pluto Tri DS (Strong)

You'll probably feel and act here like you can't trip up and angels will bear you up if you do -- and you'll be more than close to correct in the assumption. You look like someone to have faith in, and to the extent you feel the same way, you are. Don't throw caution to the winds, but do tread with confidence.

Pluto in Third House

You can get your way with words here, but you may have to knock heads with some brainy competitors to succeed. You can speak forcefully, but watch that you don't get too stubborn and promote ideas that are out of date or haven't been thought through. If you say it, you own it, so choose your words wisely.

Natal Mars Ssx DS (Strong)

You should find your stamina level increasing here -- or, at least you find it easier to get the job done without having to waste extra energy. Your first stroke is usually the right one, so you save energy by not having to repeat efforts in order create accomplishment. Easy and invigorating.

Mars in Fifth House

You can expend a lot of energy here in having a really good time. Any recreation that's challenging and requires real effort is likely to pull you right in. The urge to have fun and make each day a new creation makes you an ideal playmate and this is a potential playground. Just pick partners that can keep up with you and also help you learn the terrain.

Natal Venus Sqq DS (Strong)

Getting what you want around here may take more than one try, and that's not because no one wants to please. It's just that it's sometimes unclear to others what you want or what image you are trying to project to get it. A mirror is your best friend, and let your friends be your mirror until you get it right.

Venus in Second House

Show me the money may be a little harsh way to say it, but it may be both the way you feel here and what your main goals will be. Opportunity tends to present itself in tangible form, so getting your hands on it is the natural reaction. Just watch that you don't seem to take more than your share.

Natal Jupiter Ssq IC (Strong)

Living up to overstated expectations here can be challenging, and overpublicity can leave you in the dust as quickly as it put you on top. People can get too much of a good thing, so do what you can to see that they only hear about your best efforts and don't have to wade through draft versions or needless revisions you let escape in good faith.

Jupiter in Second House

You can run through a lot of cash here, both coming and going, so enjoy what passes through your hands while making sure it doesn't all go back out the door again. This is a great place for investment, also an easy place to lose your shirt when you think you're on a roll. Turn it over, keep a little back, roll it over again.

Natal Sun Sqr DS (Strong)

There may be some conflict between the way you really are inside and the first impression people get upon meeting you here. First meetings don't tell the tale, so you'll have to follow-up until they've got it straight whom they're really talking to. Don't expect the first date to get the results you ultimately want, so have the second already lined up.

Sun in Fourth House

You may feel quite grounded here, like you know the place in some special way. It may be because you especially share some kind of inner philosophy with the people you encounter that gives you a mutual bottom line. Under any circumstances, you can get down to brass tacks and cut to the quick.

Natal Venus Ssx IC (Medium)

Good things will just naturally be said about you here, which will aid your PR attempts no doubt. You'll find yourself gravitating toward professional choices you really like, and vice versa, so it's a good place to steer your career. If you like it, they'll hear about it and come along and give you some.

Natal Moon Ssq IC (Medium)

It might be wise to put your opinions through the editing process before you let fly with your off-the-cuff feelings here, as off-the-hip shots could get you into a quagmire of explanations and misinterpretations. That doesn't mean clam up all the time, just know that you may have to do some spin control when you don't.

Moon in First House

Your emotions will be close to the surface here and your ability to directly engage people will be strong. It's good for selling yourself or what you're promoting, but not good for hiding the way you feel, so be sincere about what you say. Your heart is on your sleeve, don't try to retrieve it.

Natal Uranus Tri DS (Medium)

This can be a land of discovery for you if you ease yourself into it on a personal basis. Just show up and look for something different, and the chances are you'll find it. It's partly about what's there, and partly about the fresh pair of eyes you bring to the situation that gives everybody a new look.

Uranus in Third House

It's a great climate for communicating all sort of original ideas and new approaches to thinking -- your only challenge is to sort out the really revolutionary from the completely goofy, which may seem alike on the surface. It's all a stop-and-go process, as will be communications with daily associates of all sorts.

Natal Saturn Tri AS (Mild)

You appear to carry a little more weight here than you might, and inaction will often appear to be the voice of experience and patience rather than indecision. Once you pick up and get going, you've got a lot on your side, so leave drag racing to others who will look nervous and uncertain by comparison.

Saturn in Ninth House

You may find a certain sense of realism here that could be either refreshingly simple or quite limiting, depending on the reason you come here to begin with. New ideas find less receptivity than elsewhere and you may be best off finding what traditional approaches have to offer. Conservatism has its moments.

Natal Neptune Sxt DS (Mild)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in Fourth House

Just being here may have a bit of a mystic touch to it, like there is something fundamentally spiritual to be tapped, even though you may not be able to immediately put your finger on it. The dream of living here may be no more than that, but there's a certain allure that might have you thinking more than once about it.

Natal Saturn On MC (Mild)

Your more conservative side is on display here, and if you want to be known as older and more experienced, you'll get that image well-promoted here. But if you're trying to portray yourself as the very latest thing in tune with the moment's fashions, save yourself the trip. Your authority here will be strengthened by a reputation for consistency, and career efforts should be in fields that rely on or are involved with tradition, long-term thinking, and cold, hard facts. You have the choice of doing well at what you know well and getting credit for it, or simply being a wet blanket on others' aspirations, so it's best to stick to your own business and show off your best, rather than to tear down the opposition. When you stand your ground, you're on your firmest ground, so let others founder through their own faults, not yours. If you feel that this kind of imaging may limit you or cut you off from your real aspirations, however, this may not be where you want to be unless you're regrouping and need to make easy defense of what you've already done. It's a better ending place than a starting place, better for reducing broth than raising bread.

Paran Latitude LinesMoon-Mercury Latitude Line at 43N39'46"

You can say what you mean and mean what you say here, like few other places. It's as if the words -- or at least their real meanings -- just jump right out at you, as though you already knew it beforehand, even in another language. That doesn't always mean you'll be glib or the leader of the conversation, but when you choose to speak it will be from the heart -- and you'll be received in kind. Thus, it's a great place for developing your ideas, as you'll be able to get them across clearly and you won't have to waste words beating around the bush. Just say the first thing that comes into your mind, and you'll be on the mark.

C*C*G Section

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Transit Saturn On DS (Strong)

This might not be the place to go right now, unless you love pressure and hard work. That doesn't mean you'll get work here, perhaps the opposite, but you'll be expected to do double duty in any case. If you want to look older, it's the place to be, as you'll appear a bit more serious and traditional. Expect at least a year of this here.

Progressed Mars Sxt MC (Strong)

This marks several years of confident pulling behind your goals and accomplishments, stroking evenly with your oars to race ahead of the pack. You can make great progress here because you're in tune with what you've done and what you yet want to do, and one naturally boosts the other.

Progressed Mercury Ssq DS (Medium)

You may catch yourself giving mixed messages this year, especially as it relates to your body language and gestures, so check your mirror and your video cam before you give a speech to the locals. It's not that you don't know what you mean to say, it's just that the point gets lost in the way you're laying it out, so work on your script and direction to iron out the kinks.

Transit Neptune Ssq DS (Medium)

You may find that your image doesn't always slip easily into the current local fantasy right now, and as a result you may be seen as an outsider or an interloper. It's about how you physically present yourself, and there's little to be done except to demonstrate that you can't judge a book by its cover.

Progressed Sun Ssx DS (Medium)

Stepping forward with confidence here comes easily for at least a year or so, as your self-image and your actual appearance link up nicely and you don't need extra makeup to look like you're in tune with yourself. You can concentrate on making accomplishments, as the inner wherewithal needs no attention.

Transit Jupiter On DS (Medium)

This year is the perfect time to be here for you, as you'll appear to represent the very latest, newest, coolest thing happening around these parts. It's all about how you look in person, so dress the part and perfect the lines that get the most applause. Next year you cash in on it here and replay a similar game two time zones east of here. And, oh, watch your weight.

Progressed Moon On AS (Mild)

You're coming out into the daylight here, after a couple of years of being more inclined to lay low and stay behind the scenes. Emotionally, you're ready for prime time here, so it's a good place to get out there and interact, let your feelings be known. You may not feel the same where you are now, but go here and see if it happens.

Transit Neptune Ssx MC (Mild)

Your particular set of accomplishments are seen here for some considerable time as being rather ideal and fitting right in to the local drama. That may not actually be the case, but why fight a good thing if playing along can benefit you and educate you at the same time? Embrace the dream and see how you like it.

Transit Uranus Sqr DS (Mild)

The ride can be bumpy here for a year or two at least, as you may alternately be seen as leading the pack or going against the grain, with not much compromise in the middle. The answer is to be as steady as you can yourself so you come out the other side saying I told you so, not I wonder what just happened.

Progressed Mercury Tri MC (Mild)

Your ability to put your career goals and accomplishments into words grows a notch this year around here -- or, rather, it grows into what may have been clothes that didn't quite fit before. You can comfortably promote yourself because you're at ease with who you are and what you've done -- the script is second nature for a while.
