Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Cancer

Standing up for yourself on principle can come easily here, but so can ignoring the valid positions of others, so don't close down your pathways of communication and above all, don't pout. Make your point, but don't block the road if you don't ultimately get your way. Lead with your feelings, but don't get them hurt unnecessarily.

Midheaven in Aries

You can get a reputation for impulsiveness here, so be careful where you make your moves. Being the first in and first out will gain you profits in business but not in love, so deploy yourself accordingly. If you mean to move forcefully, be prepared to back it up and don't be a paper tiger. Lightning strikes require a plan for follow-through.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Pluto Tri DS (Strong)

You'll probably feel and act here like you can't trip up and angels will bear you up if you do -- and you'll be more than close to correct in the assumption. You look like someone to have faith in, and to the extent you feel the same way, you are. Don't throw caution to the winds, but do tread with confidence.

Pluto in Third House

You can get your way with words here, but you may have to knock heads with some brainy competitors to succeed. You can speak forcefully, but watch that you don't get too stubborn and promote ideas that are out of date or haven't been thought through. If you say it, you own it, so choose your words wisely.

Natal Uranus Tri DS (Strong)

This can be a land of discovery for you if you ease yourself into it on a personal basis. Just show up and look for something different, and the chances are you'll find it. It's partly about what's there, and partly about the fresh pair of eyes you bring to the situation that gives everybody a new look.

Uranus in Third House

It's a great climate for communicating all sort of original ideas and new approaches to thinking -- your only challenge is to sort out the really revolutionary from the completely goofy, which may seem alike on the surface. It's all a stop-and-go process, as will be communications with daily associates of all sorts.

Natal Venus Ssx IC (Strong)

Good things will just naturally be said about you here, which will aid your PR attempts no doubt. You'll find yourself gravitating toward professional choices you really like, and vice versa, so it's a good place to steer your career. If you like it, they'll hear about it and come along and give you some.

Venus in Second House

Show me the money may be a little harsh way to say it, but it may be both the way you feel here and what your main goals will be. Opportunity tends to present itself in tangible form, so getting your hands on it is the natural reaction. Just watch that you don't seem to take more than your share.

Natal Jupiter Ssq IC (Medium)

Living up to overstated expectations here can be challenging, and overpublicity can leave you in the dust as quickly as it put you on top. People can get too much of a good thing, so do what you can to see that they only hear about your best efforts and don't have to wade through draft versions or needless revisions you let escape in good faith.

Jupiter in Second House

You can run through a lot of cash here, both coming and going, so enjoy what passes through your hands while making sure it doesn't all go back out the door again. This is a great place for investment, also an easy place to lose your shirt when you think you're on a roll. Turn it over, keep a little back, roll it over again.

Natal Neptune Sxt DS (Medium)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in Fourth House

Just being here may have a bit of a mystic touch to it, like there is something fundamentally spiritual to be tapped, even though you may not be able to immediately put your finger on it. The dream of living here may be no more than that, but there's a certain allure that might have you thinking more than once about it.

Natal Venus Sqq DS (Medium)

Getting what you want around here may take more than one try, and that's not because no one wants to please. It's just that it's sometimes unclear to others what you want or what image you are trying to project to get it. A mirror is your best friend, and let your friends be your mirror until you get it right.

Natal Mars Ssx DS (Mild)

You should find your stamina level increasing here -- or, at least you find it easier to get the job done without having to waste extra energy. Your first stroke is usually the right one, so you save energy by not having to repeat efforts in order create accomplishment. Easy and invigorating.

Mars in Sixth House

You can throw yourself into the daily routine here, increasing efficiency, productivity, and even improving your health while doing it. It may seem less than fun to others, but your enthusiasm spills over and pulls them into the game. When you push yourself, it's a new production every day, never quite the same.

Natal Sun Sqr DS (Mild)

There may be some conflict between the way you really are inside and the first impression people get upon meeting you here. First meetings don't tell the tale, so you'll have to follow-up until they've got it straight whom they're really talking to. Don't expect the first date to get the results you ultimately want, so have the second already lined up.

Sun in Fourth House

You may feel quite grounded here, like you know the place in some special way. It may be because you especially share some kind of inner philosophy with the people you encounter that gives you a mutual bottom line. Under any circumstances, you can get down to brass tacks and cut to the quick.

Natal Moon Ssq IC (Mild)

It might be wise to put your opinions through the editing process before you let fly with your off-the-cuff feelings here, as off-the-hip shots could get you into a quagmire of explanations and misinterpretations. That doesn't mean clam up all the time, just know that you may have to do some spin control when you don't.

Moon in Second House

Your feelings about the landscape and what's on it can run strong here, and you might well be tempted to buy a sizeable scoop. You'll love it more if you can own it and get physical, so don't hesitate to get your hands dirty in this garden. You'll find you've got a green thumb waiting to happen here.

Paran Latitude Lines

Venus-Mars Latitude Line at 29N28'07"

This could certainly be your pleasure dome if you are the least inclined to make it so. That sexy sparkle, personal magnetism, charm, and charisma that you see on the silver screen becomes yours to call upon when you walk out the door. Desire and opportunity meet for you here, and all you have to do is choose the stage and play the part. It's not a free ride, of course, and certainly not passive. It requires that you throw yourself into living here and embrace every chance to live life to the max that comes your way, even when it's troublesome. You want to be a star, you got to put up with the paparazzi. If that sounds too exhausting, take a pass on it. If not, head this way and let the party begin.
