INTRODUCTION

The Circular Temple degree meanings were developed by astrologer John Sandbach. Like the very popular Sabian Symbols the degree meanings presented in John's Book "The Circular Temple" were initially created by intuitively channeling the information. In addition to the channeled material, John has developed a system for understanding patterns in degree meanings which he uses extensively in his consulting practice. He began working with degree meanings and sign segments in the early 1970's and continues to work intensively on them today. John's first book, "Dwadasamsas: Degree Analyses and Deeper Meanings," on the dwadasamsas (the 12-part divisions of each sign used in Indian astrology), was published in 1978. The study of degrees and variations in astrological meanings in a zodiac sign has been a major part of John's life work. We are fortunate to be able to present to you here the interpretations from "The Circular Temple" with this software. As you can see from the length of them, John has devoted a huge amount of time in developing degree meaning interpretations.

There are actually four separate sets of degree meanings, with a symbolic image for each one: the Omega Symbols (root of the degree), the Pleiadian Symbols (the degree's identity), the Chandra Symbols (how it interacts with the world around it), and the Azoth Symbols (its spiritual goal). Each of these degree meanings describes a different aspect of your personality. The combination of all four symbols gives a detailed picture of how the degree functions in your life. If you're interested in studying the theory of degree meanings, John's book "The Circular Temple" is available on kindle at www.amazon.com.

You will notice that each degree also has a "Seed Degree" and a "Fulfillment Degree." These are zodiacal degrees which have a specific mathematical relationship to the particular degree in question. If you have another planet at a Seed Degree or a Fulfillment Degree, or if another person has a planet at one of these degrees, then that planet acts as a source of inspiration and impetus (Seed Degree) or as a fulfillment of the goals of this degree (Fulfillment Degree).

It is important to synthesize the degree meaning to the planet or other astrological point that is at that degree. For example, the degree meaning for Venus relates to your sense of beauty, art, harmony, and romance, and will bring this energy to whatever degree it occupies. Always remember that the 6th degree of a sign, for example, extends from 5 deg 00 min to 5 deg 59 min 59 sec of the zodiac sign

Lastly, each degree has an "Omega Oracle" which is a prose poem expressing one facet of the degree's energy. The Oracle is meant to stimulate your imagination and to assist you in tuning in more deeply to the meanings and messages of the degree.

The Degree Angels given at the beginning of each degree come to us from the Kabbalah. More information about them can be found in the book "Birth Angels Book of Days" by Terah Cox, available at amazon.com.

Circular Temple Degree Meanings

Sun is 4-5 deg Scorpio

Degree Angel: HAIYAEL (HA-ee-ya-EL) Prophecy and Parallel Universes, Divine Warrior/Weaponry, Manifesting/Inspired

TITLE: FREEDOM FROM FEAR OF MUTATION AND CHANGE or ACKNOWLEDGING THE POWER INHERENT IN FRAGILITY AND SENSITIVITY

Omega Symbol: A sculptor creating large, fragile works of art out of paper.

This degree is intent on expressing its creativity in a momentary, evanescent manner, without modifying it for the purpose of pleasing the crowd or meeting the expectations of others. It needs to be faithful to its own creative vision and play with energies in an uninhibited fashion that is free of tradition, constraints and formal rules. The message it communicates is that all passes and that time and change are not to be feared, but rather savored in the moment..

Pleiadian Symbol: Sharp rocks splashed, dripping with sea spray.

You experience the continual conflict between the forces of desire and the built-up places of resistance within you, which the desire forces continually work to break down. Your passions surge and demand to be expressed, but there are dense places within that refuse change, and adamantly stand against the transformations that your instincts thirst for. In time these places will be worn down and eventually they will completely be worn away. In the meantime the best way for you to proceed is to live this process as consciously as possible.

The water, which is yin, acts in a yang manner by splashing the rocks, and the rocks, which are yang act in a yin way in that they are passively resistant. This interplay of yin and yang is seen as well in the male/female merging in the Egyptian queen of the Chandra Symbol.

Chandra Symbol: An Egyptian queen with a braided beard.

By wearing a beard she is trying to gain credibility and authority through taking on a traditional symbol of power, just as the sculptor cares so little for credibility that he creates works of art in a virtually unmarketable media. This degree realizes the unreasoning and narrow biases of society, and is willing on the one hand to work within those to achieve its ends, or, when it feels it can afford the price, to ignore society's restrictive biases and narrow opinions and strike out on its own.

This degree can bring greater self awareness to others and to the world at large. It's an adept and aware social critic, though the medicine it offers society may not be readily taken in by the world. It also has a magical ability to inspire confidence in others - the confidence to be themselves, even if it means foregoing social approval.

Azoth Symbol: Many precious objects being heaped on an altar.

Giving your all to the highest work, and not sparing any expense of time, money or energy as you open a path through which spiritual energies can find their way into the physical realm. The lifting of materiality into realms of the spiritual as a means of magically charging and transforming it.

Seed Degree: Taurus - 26

All over the city, words on scraps of paper floating through the sewers. (Omega Symbol). Experiencing all the waste and junk around us, we seek a way to make something positively creative and meaningful out of it.

Grotesque rocks in a sand garden. (Chandra Symbol). When we perceive the way nature is so utterly free in her continual creative experimentation, we allow ourselves to be empowered by our own inner wisdom - and willing to freely express its sensitivity.

Fulfillment Degree: Aquarius - 18

A cloud in the middle of an empty sky has lost its way. (Omega Symbol). Allowing whatever we create to be of the moment, and not worrying about whether it will endure, we realize that even if we and what we make evaporate, we will simply reincarnate in another form - in fact in just the form that we need to progress us.

An American Indian woman in a canoe. She is gathering wild rice. (Chandra Symbol). Empowered by our own feminine wisdom we seek in nature that which will nourish both ourselves and others.

Omega Oracle

In 4197 the sculptor Synosrap Relt finished his 11 year project of creating the 7 story tower made of paper known as the Obelisk of Sandar, which still stands today, after 700 years, in the Grand Park on the outskirts of the city of Peth. It is amazing in its sculptural details and origamic virtuosity, and is said to have more than 1000 gargoyles made solely of folds covering its surface.

The alchemist Tonar Rason, shortly after the tower was erected, enveloped the area in which it stands with several spells - formulas to prevent the stirring of any air, others to make the tower itself impervious to rain, and others to maintain a steady and mild atmosphere surrounding it. To this day the spells still hold and the tower is visited every year by thousands, though none could ascend it due to its extreme fragility until the year 4269 in which the alchemist Durad Ramas installed at its entrance a magic stone of his making, which, if kissed, would render most visitors light as a feather for several hours and hence allow them to ascend, in which they could admire its elegant spiral staircase, elaborate system of vaulting, and rooms in which Relt had placed some of his most inspired sculptures, the most famous being his "War of the Butterflies."

Moon is 24-25 deg Leo

Degree Angel: VEHUIAH (vay-HOO-ee-YAH) Time Travel, Will and New Beginnings, Interacting/Inspired

TITLE: RESOURCEFULNESS IN FINDING WAYS TO COPE WITH THE SURROUNDING REALITY or TRANSCENDENT SELF-ASSURANCE or SELF-MODIFICATION AS THE NEED ARISES.

Omega Symbol: A woman incessantly eating pills.

You seek fulfillment, and at best you have an acute instinct for being able to read exactly your ever-changing needs, as well as the needs of others, together with the wherewithal to satisfy them. At worst you continually feel that something is lacking, but can't identify what it really is. This can cause you to keep trying different things in frustrating attempts to achieve satisfaction. At best you take in the essence of things in a concentrated, potent and nourishing form.

Pleiadian Symbol: The tinkling of camel bells as a caravan crosses the desert.

Joy even in the midst of difficult circumstances. The continual awareness of movement forward. Persistence that continues steadily even through the most bleak and unsupportive of circumstances. You have the ability to encourage others in an almost hidden way that is so steady it's wellnigh mesmerizing.

Chandra Symbol: A circle of neat houses, each one identical.

The extreme of conformity here produces an anonymity that becomes so intense it actually frees the self to be its own special and unique entity. The houses may be identical and neat, but each one who lives there is special and never exactly like another, and so the regimented setting actually highlights individuality. A highly mysterious and ironic degree.

Azoth Symbol: While people sleep a blizzard blankets the forest.

Patient acceptance of whatever occurs. A peaceful acknowledging of times and circumstances that are not supportive to the taking of action, and the ability to use them to rejuvenate the self. The ability to create an aura of profound coziness.

Seed Degree: Capricorn -23

While their bodies sleep, a group of people meet on the astral plane. (Omega Symbol). Sensing the spirit's need to continually reach out to whatever will further its evolution, we continually try to take in whatever might nourish us and bring balance to our being.

An old priest using oil to anoint a carved stone lingam. (Chandra Symbol). Honoring, encouraging and supporting the creative ideal we come to realize that everything is ultimately the same, and that this is leading us toward union with the eternal.

Fulfillment Degree: Aries - 13

A breeze carries a soap bubble thousands of miles. (Omega Symbol). Always trying to compensate for what we feel is missing we come to the awareness that our power ultimately lies beyond the physical plane, and that we have nothing to fear from the world of phenomena.

The wind blows white sheets hung on a line to dry. (Chandra Symbol). Unifying with others and affirming our sameness becomes a way of overcoming the conflict of differences, and hence clearing, freeing and rejuvenating.

Omega Oracle

She used to read the labels on bottles, and would always be continually learning the uses and side effects of all the pills she took, but since there were so many to be always taking, she realized she had no time for such education and decided, by a leap of faith, on a strictly intuitive approach.

Eventually the pills began speaking to her, and telling her which of them wished to be gobbled, and how many as well. Luckily her pill chest turned into a cornucopia, where all sorts of supplements, sedatives, stimulants, vitamins, minerals, herbs, mood elevators, anti-depressants, suppressants, inhibitors, relaxants, barbituates and even all the latest and newest drugs miraculously appeared, so she didn't have to waste precious time taking trips to pharmacies, forging prescriptions, or spending huge sums of money.

All in all she felt quite fine. Of course she did! For her pills loved her and were always there when she needed them.

Mercury is 13-14 deg Scorpio

Degree Angel: CAHETEL (KA-heh-TEL) Defusing Negative Energy, Divine Blessings, Transforming/Responsible

TITLE: THE ABILITY TO FULLY EMBRACE AND SUPPORT THE PROCESS OF MUTATION or THE AWAKENING OF LIFE IN MATERIAL SUBSTANCE

Omega Symbol: A white marble foot glows pink as it turns into flesh.

Understanding is only cold and impersonal when it is fueled by fear. When it is combined with the heat of love it comes alive, is released from its limits, and is renewed. This degree is about waking up, and waking others up, especially waking them to what they already know but have forgotten, and waking them to their connection with the whole universe.

Pleiadian Symbol: A sacred runner carrying a message to the mountains.

The arduous task of being a go-between when making connections that are often difficult to bring about. The perceiving of higher meaning at the root of all communication and the ability to bring it forth.

Chandra Symbol: Women dressed in black. They are wailing and mourning.

The fact that there is more than one woman in the symbol signifies the giving and receiving of support in the process of mourning. If this process is deeply and fully engaged in it will lead to the rebirth signified by the Omega Symbol of this degree. What is of critical importance to realize here is that if the act of mourning is not deep and full enough it might must become a habit, a place where one becomes stuck. Completely submerging oneself in the act of mourning, though, as signified by the fact that the woman are clothed in black, is what will cause one to be able to release it and move on to renewal, as signified by the "rope going up into the sky" of the fulfillment degree.

Azoth Symbol: An astrologer looking for a major conjunction of planets.

Sensitivity to the timing of everything, which means that you intuitively perceive patterns of activity and therefore can sense when things are coming to an end and how to begin new activities in a way that is in harmony with the greater cycles of nature. This even works on a small scale, such as the meaningful timing of comments within a conversation.

Seed Degree: Virgo - 14

A collection of diamonds of many different colors. (Omega Symbol). Being able to turn any energy into something positively has a deeply enlivening effect on whatever one creates.

A long steel screw. (Chandra Symbol). Strong and deep attachments eventually lead to mourning until they are released.

Fulfillment Degree: Scorpio - 19

An angel kisses a man while he sleeps. (Omega Symbol). When we soften our consciousness so that we may perceive that everything is alive, we are visited by and receive the love of the angels.

A rope going up into the sky. (Chandra Symbol). When we share our grief with others in a complete way, we lighten ourselves so much and create such a connection with the divine that we are able to rise above the heaviness of the physical world.

Omega Oracle

Hindar's famous Sculpture "The Dryad of Menum" was a portrait of Enard Travaal's love, Deralia, who had died tragically, struck down by a meteor. Every year many come to witness in the Museum of Peth the foot of the statue turning pink on the anniversary of Deralia's death as it comes to life, often the toes wiggling and stretching before the foot once again turns back into marble.

The Historian Renad Fazar has pointed out that in Travaal's diaries he mentions that in his palace this statue was displayed on a high pedestal, and that frequently Travaal would kiss the foot of it, his love, Fazar supposes, accumulating there and over time imbuing the statue with a faint life.

Venus is 18-19 deg Virgo

Degree Angel: NITH-HAIAH (NIT-ha-YAH) Speak Your Mind, Spiritual Wisdom and Magic, Manifesting/Responsible

TITLE: JOY AND EXALTATION AS FUEL FOR THE SOUL or PIERCING THE ILLUSION THAT SOME THINGS ARE MORE IMPORTANT THAN OTHERS

Omega Symbol: A procession of dancers and musicians joyously moving through a forest.

You are constantly aware of the inherent joy and wonder of life, and want others to always keep that in the forefront of their consciousness as well. Even when life is difficult and chaotic, with no end of troubles in sight, you have a strong knowing that if we can all keep celebrating, eventually we will have more and more reason to do so.

Pleiadian Symbol: Youths riding the backs of dolphins.

Playful connection to the power and wisdom inherent in one's emotions. Refusing to allow "growing up" to in any way lessen one's joyful exuberance. You tend to shun any environment which would bring out an urge to rebel, and instead seek worlds where ecstasy, love, and delight can rule.

Chandra Symbol: A fire breathing dragon the size of a mouse.

Because all things are equal in the sight of God, there are no such things as details - everything is important. You often feel that certain things are of high significance which most other people deem to be of no consequence. What you need to do is not allow the value judgments of other people to cause you to question or deny your feelings. There is a deeper, spiritual reason why you feel these things to be important, and they need to be attended to in whatever manner you feel would be best, for this is the way your creative power manifests.

One of the biggest problems here is that the more one focuses on small things the more one finds of them. And so there is a necessity to always be asking yourself which details are truly the most important to you, which are calling to you in the loudest and clearest voices.

Azoth Symbol: In an old house many rooms that have been shut up for years.

The sensing of places within the self that need to be redeemed and retrieved. It is connecting with our joy that allows us to do this. You really perceive how others limit themselves and can help them to become more aware of the greater spaces in which they might live.

Seed Degree: Scorpio - 12

A woman with a collection of rocks shaped like hearts. (Omega symbol). Becoming aware of the different varieties of heaviness weighing down the heart, the healing power of our attention magically transforms into a joy which we feel a deep need to share.

A young man with a frail body, but a beautiful and noble face. (Chandra symbol). As we become more and more deeply identified with our spiritual ideals we are guided to find our own unique way to bring them into manifestation in the physical world.

Fulfillment Degree: Aries - 15

An hourglass in which the sand has become stuck. (Omega Symbol). The deep and full sharing of joy with others carries us beyond the limitations of time into the blissful realization of eternity.

A man with pointed ears. (Chandra Symbol). Acknowledging the minute, fire-breathing dragon, we learn to listen deeply to the promptings of spirit and the voices of nature.

Omega Oracle

They leave music behind them as they progress, and the echoes of dances, a celebration rising in the forest, filling the trees with festival. What matters their destination, or if the forest has paths, or that there is no holiday or feast day which they celebrate? They revel, anyway and forever, feeding the forest with their joy.

Mars is 3-4 deg Capricorn

Degree Angel: YEIALEL (YAY-a-LEL) Letting Go, Mental Force, Manifesting/Responsible

TITLE: THE READING OF TELLTALE SIGNS AND THE QUESTION OF WHAT THEY MEAN

Omega Symbol: As a cliff erodes, a temple is in danger of collapsing.

Needs change, and when they do, structures that may have been depended on for a long time need to change too, to meet those new needs. That is what this degree is aware of. It taps into undercurrents of feeling and can see how these are eroding the landscape of human thought. At its best its capable of suggesting means of change that take into account the long range and which are practical.

Pleiadian Symbol: For a journey down river people turn into eels.

Finding the right form in which to optimize one's moving with the flow of energy. You have a sometimes spectacular ability to take on the vibrations of your environment as a means of navigating it to get where you're going. The more extreme the need the more your resourcefulness comes forth, often with stunning cleverness.

Chandra Symbol: Footprints in the snow.

This degree is psychically aware of energy traces that have been left both in this life and ones that linger from other lifetimes. The question is, shall it follow one of these, or strike out on its own. It has the persistent feeling, always in the back of its mind that all this has happened before. This feeling is present so that hopefully it may gain more awareness of why things are unfolding the way they are, and this time either work through them or overcome them, so they can be let go of, clearing the way for further growth.

Azoth Symbol: In the night a prehistoric caveman hears the ticking of a clock.

Awareness of the limitations we place on our experience, and of how those limitations can both help and unnecessarily restrict us. It's as if you're loose in time and so are able to tap into both the far past and far future. You can be tremendously openminded without even thinking about it or being aware of it, and so can often see things that completely elude the perceptions of others. This can be wonderfully enriching to the world around you.

Seed Degree: Taurus - 16

At the bottom of a gorge, a river turbulent with rapids. (Omega Symbol). The deep rushing of forward energy eventually erodes away all that's in need of change.

A young girl and boy explore a perfume counter. (Chandra Symbol). As we refine all our sense impressions we become imprinted with the subtleties of energy.

Fulfillment Degree: Capricorn - 23

While their bodies sleep, a group of people meet on the astral plane. (Omega Symbol). Sensing the forces of darkness and entropy moving toward overtaking the spiritual light, we seek out others who can help us to rekindle spiritual energy in ourselves as we simultaneously do the same for them.

An old priest using oil to anoint a carved stone lingam. (Chandra Symbol). Whatever we continue to revisit serves ultimately to re-energize our creative powers.

Omega Oracle

They knew the sea was approaching slowly to eat the temple. They had built it as an offering to the waters, and so had chosen a cliff for its site - a high place above the surf where the hungry ocean below savored, over centuries the thought of its eventual repast.

And if, at the time of its consumption it might be filled with candles and worshipers they delighted to know that the faithful would also be taken into the sea's vast mouth, and that their gift would be filled with warmth and light.

Jupiter is 1-2 deg Virgo

Degree Angel: CAHETEL (KA-heh-TEL) Defusing Negative Energy, Divine Blessings, Manifesting/Sensitive

TITLE: STAYING WITH SOMETHING LONG ENOUGH TO YIELD RESULTS

Omega Symbol: A table on which many healings have been performed.

You work at building up energy gradually, often by doing something over and over. This can be nearly magical in nature, in that you can refine your ability to do whatever you are doing, as well as acquire greater subtlety in doing it. You have an instinctive way of being able to make the right kind of space for whatever you're going to do, and this can insure success.

Pleiadian Symbol: In a sacred cave a lingam of ice.

Power manifesting with clarity and calmness. The slow and steady accumulation of certainty and creative potency, which has its roots in the receptivity and focus of the Omega Symbol.

Chandra Symbol: A man hanging upside down from a tree.

Just as the table of the Omega Symbol is waiting for the next patient, the man of this symbol is waiting for the right time to act. The tree symbolizes knowledge, and the man of the symbol is dedicated to it. His feet, which signify understanding, are raised to heaven while his head - his mental/intellectual part - is nearest to the earth, meaning devoted to the affairs of practical existence.

This degree knows and sees to a great extent how the spiritual light is working in the world, its insights and perceptions may not be heard by others. The truth of this degree is that if enough positive energy is built up, the tide will eventually turn, though to do this sometimes great patience, focus, and waiting are required.

Azoth Symbol: Children tasting many different kinds of fruit which they are picking off trees.

An innocent assimilation of the pure essence of nature. Approaching experience in a spontaneous, unprepared manner that is fun, exciting, and which tends to leave behind all biases and preconceived notions. You encourage others to fulfill their needs directly and innocently as you do so yourself, and to partake of the beauty that the world has to offer.

Seed Degree: Aries - 18

Sitting in the Lotus posture, a monk's body is incorruptible. (Omega Symbol). The ability to focus faithfully on the inner silence slowly and inevitably creates a vortex of healing energy.

A jellyfish. (Chandra Symbol). To be soft and transparent allows us to patiently wait until we perceive the connection between consciousness and matter.

Fulfillment Degree: Scorpio - 13

An acupuncturist who activates points simply by holding a needle over them. (Omega Symbol). When we have refined and perfected our preparations for anything we are often surprised by the ease with which they are eventually carried out.

Someone tells a joke and no one laughs. (Chandra Symbol). Focusing more and more on self-understanding, we let go of the need for the approval of other people.

Omega Oracle

I, the healing table, belong to an illustrious community of locations where humans lay prone. We consist mainly of beds, coffins, and autopsy tables, and of course, my breed, where people come to be healed.

Prone, the body naturally re-establishes its earthly nature as it lays there upon me, sometimes beneath the sky, or most often beneath its surrogate - a ceiling. I am always surprised that I can support such weight and such vastness - whole worlds, mostly forgotten, and immeasurable continents of dreams, with their dense forests of images, and seas where creatures appear spontaneously in the depths as others continually mutate, while, in the atmosphere of these worlds, currents of desires and herds of unformed thoughts flow in the air like gigantic rivers, creating weather.

And though I am only a table I am porous enough to receive the residues of all these dreams and memories, and when needed to recall what is stored in me to assist the healer.

Saturn is 7-8 deg Aries

Degree Angel: CAHETEL (KA-heh-TEL) Defusing negative energy and stress, Divine Blessings, Interacting/Receptive

TITLE: QUEST FOR SOURCE, or ACUTE AWARENESS

Omega Symbol: A man journeying far north to the mouth of a river.

You are inherently a truth seeker, always looking for the spiritual energies at work under all life's experiences. You're willing to go along with whatever life has to offer, because you sense the force of evolution at work everywhere, as it guides us toward higher consciousness. You need to seek the privacy in which you can journey into your inner space and re-attune to your spiritual power.

Pleiadian Symbol: A flock of winged serpents cavorting in the air.

The uninhibited play of cosmic powers as they joyfully interact with each other. The ignoring of supposed limits and "reality" in a stunning, free and dynamic dance of elemental forces. It is the open air of the imagination in which this magical game occurs.

Chandra Symbol: A lizard dressed in blue satin and pointed shoes.

A salamander - a fire elemental - spirit of creativity dressed in the color of Sagittarius, color of the sky's far spaces. The feet signify understanding, the shoes pointed, meaning the understanding is acute, penetrating. North is the direction of spirit and journeying to the north we encounter this creative spirit and commune with its wisdom. This is the seed degree of Scorpio.

Azoth Symbol: Palms bending and twisting in a hurricane.

Rooted in the truth of one's being, and holding fast and flexible amidst the roar of outer life and the incessant surging of the mind. You're built for the storms you find yourself in and can even use them as a form of exercise.

Seed Degree: Gemini - 8

A healer who uses only smiles to perform all his healings. (Omega Symbol). The simplicity of love guides us to the spiritual source of life.

A cave in deep ocean waters. (Chandra Symbol). Through a profound exploration of our own depths we encounter the spirit of cosmic and eternal fire.

Fulfillment Degree: Scorpio - 1

A man suspended in the air watches everything from a great height. (Omega Symbol). Returning to source we drink the waters of expanded vision.

A tunnel through a mountain. (Chandra Symbol). Pure, clear understanding, sharp and penetrating, pierces through all illusions and obstructions.

Omega Oracle

Water looks to collect - seeks wholeness - the sea, where it may rest for awhile, immersed in itself, before it ascends, becomes clouds, takes up tenancy in pools, mirrors itself in drops, being separate and yet not. The man wonders, when he arrives at the mouth of the river, what will it have to say?

Uranus is 27-28 deg Virgo

Degree Angel: LEHAHIAH (Lay-HA-hee-YAH) Forget Thyself, Obedience, Transforming/Receptive

TITLE: STRIVING TO COMMUNICATE SO THAT ONE CAN GIVE VOICE TO AND HENCE BE LIBERATED FROM THE PAST

Omega Symbol: A baby experiments with different sounds its mouth can make.

You innocently try out things and experiment with energy, and in doing so you can open up new paths of communicating. The most difficult thing is to keep doing this without judging it or allowing the reactions of other people to divert or stop you. Life is a piece of equipment - a very large, elaborate and mysterious one, and you're determined to explore it.

Pleiadian Symbol: Moonlight reflecting off the shiny head of an old man.

Purity of feeling mirrored through deep wisdom. Baldly exposing oneself to one's own pure, direct feelings, and the ability to share those, which can greatly help others to get in touch with theirs.

Chandra Symbol: Autumn leaves pressed in a book.

Here is a reminder that all things are going to die, and based on this a need to continually correct one's course by ridding it of whatever doesn't support personal evolution. Both this symbol and its accompanying Omega Symbol have about them a feeling of simplicity - a quality not usually associated with Virgo. It is here that Virgo turns its attention to the need to clear out what is unimportant and continually reform its existence so that it is more closely a clear expression of who one really is - just like the baby keep re-forming its mouth to see what sounds can be made.

The leaves are just natural byproducts of nature, while the book is an intellectual construct. Our intellects need to always take into account and embrace the flowing, cyclic and spontaneous ways of nature.

Facts and information can actually build up as a kind of garbage which then requires Virgo's purifying aspect.

Azoth Symbol: A city that can hide in and be called forth from a magical gem.

The containment within each truth a great myriad of ideas and possibilities. The baby's voice in the Omega Symbol is the gem, the countless sounds and combination of sounds it can make with it's mouth is the city of the Azoth Symbol.

Seed Degree: Aquarius - 30

Because they're sure a treasure is there, people dig on an island for many years. (Omega Symbol). Innocent curiosity, when allowed to express itself becomes a potent force of seeking that always tends to engage others in its process.

A large pool filled with white water lilies in bloom. (Chandra Symbol). The purity and beauty of our feelings can create an attachment to the past, but can also - if we allow ourselves to experience them deeply and totally, help us to appreciate all phases of life, including its decline and passing.

Fulfillment Degree: Capricorn - 15

An angelologist explains the sacred hierarchies. (Omega Symbol). Innocent experimentation with our own creativity helps us to perceive more and more clearly how the spiritual light is structured to uplift us in every way.

A woman wearing a necklace of skulls. (Chandra Symbol). The memories we have hidden away inside us eventually accumulate to the point that we become aware of the vast expanses of time through which we have lived and will live, which allows us to eventually let go of fear and attachment.

Omega Oracle

Some of the sounds were the blue of young skies, others the pink of dawn, or the yellow of baby chicks. In the morning of words the vowels glowed with pleasure and wonder; even the sad ones were clear as water trickling over glass. The consonants shyly appeared, like flower buds. Noises, the prima materia of random sound in which swam the wiggling, squirming seeds of all stories, happy to be alive.

Neptune is 23-24 deg Scorpio

Degree Angel: CALIEL (KA-lee-EL) Fertility, Justice, Interacting/Responsible

TITLE: THE INTUITIVE KNOWING THAT WE ALREADY HAVE AT HAND WHAT WE NEED

Omega Symbol: Gold turning back into lead.

This degree realizes that life is an ongoing process of constant change, and so any goal is never an end in itself. What is important is what we do with what we have, how we use it, and not the mere act of obtaining it. That which is desired and acquired is eventually lost or rendered worthless unless it is recycled in the service of evolution.

Gold is the metal of the Sun, and lead is the metal of Saturn, so this degree is about Sun energy (purpose) turning into Saturn energy (limitation and focus), or the need for purpose to restrict itself within practical and definite boundaries.

Pleiadian Symbol: Visitors to the cave of a holy man.

When we contact those of greater wisdom than ourselves we are inspired and uplifted by that wisdom - it can plant a seed in us. The finding of eternal truth deep within the self.

Chandra Symbol: Coca bushes growing wild in the Andes Mountains.

The coca bush yields substances which, if ingested help one to sustain oneself physically at high altitudes, signifying that this degree knows how to maintain energy at a high level, and how to survive and thrive as it goes to even higher levels.

In the Omega Symbol the lead that has been transmuted into gold cannot sustain the vibrational level of gold - it obviously has not been stabilized at that level - and so it drops back down into the vibration of lead. The point is, when we make changes, we cannot live in that changed state until we can bring enough of ourselves into it to be in it more than in the old state. That's where chewing the coca leaves come in -to help us attune to a new atmosphere and a new way of being.

In traditional alchemy when there was a failure all the old texts tell the alchemist to go back and do it again - to keep trying, because as you get better and better at making any transformation, eventually the change will steady itself and hold to the new way. This is a very persistent degree, a degree of hope, and of knowing that whatever it takes is exactly what it's going to expend to move forward.

Azoth Symbol: Healers returning to a place where they may recharge their energy.

Contact with a source of rejuvenation empowers us to continue our work in a new, refreshed, more vital manner. You have a instinctive knowledge of how environments affect both you and other people, and naturally gravitate toward places that feed and regenerate you. And, of course, these places could be physical, or psychological in nature.

Beads carved from human bone. (Chandra Symbol). In touching the lives of all who came before us we can find sustenance to continue our own journey into higher territory.

Omega Oracle

In the Museum of Peth there is displayed a ring fashioned of a most rare and peculiar metal. Its ore was mined in the Eluthar region, famous for its opals. It was there, among the densest lode of opal deposits ever discovered, that tiny gold nuggets were found also, of a strange, faintly shimmering color which was thought to have been caused by millenia of exposure to the opals.

When the alchemist Kanir Rendar fashioned a ring out of these gold nuggets it was found to attain to a state of pure gold at every New Moon, and by two weeks later, during the Full Moon to have turned to pure lead.

For many years it was worn by Princess Zarabar of Dandria, the famous eccentric, who used its magic to delight and surprise her companions, for by every New Moon the ring caused her to appear as a beautiful young girl, and then by the time the Moon had become full she had turned into a wizened old crone.

Omega Symbol: A fruit whose seeds always produce a new and different type of fruit.

You are highly aware that nothing is ever the same, that, as Heraclitus says, one can't step into the same stream twice. This means that you bring into this reality a sense of utter freshness that is always and instantaneously renewed. How liberating this can be to people! All you need do is share yourself and your insights, and everyone is renewed.

Pleiadian Symbol: On a stone gate an insignia on which is found a gryphon, a snake, and an apple.

Knowledge, wisdom, and the power to use them in a grounded and defined manner. This is what provides the woman of the Chandra Symbol the self-confidence to communicate through her writing.

Chandra Symbol: A woman writing with the tip of her fingernail.

No tool such as a pen or a pencil stands between the self and the writing, meaning what is communicated is direct, as close to the self as possible. This degree is capable of great sincerity, and self expression that is vivid, pointed, and acute. There is a great ability here to make oneself heard, to make one's point. The only thing needed is to clear the self so that the point is undistorted by egotism or any other inner darkness.

Omega Oracle

To enter into seeds he had to first make himself small, to return to the seed from which he grew, and then to become even smaller, so that he might enter the seed's world. It was a way of looking at what would grow out of different seeds, of assessing what might serve his needs and hence be planted, and what might be left to other forces.

These particular seeds, though, were different. When he descended into one he found himself in a galaxy where myriads of new seeds, each one different, floated. As he gazed into this kaleidoscope of potential, he realized what he'd found: the fabled Seed of Seeds.

TITLE: MAKING WAY FOR THAT WHICH IS WITHIN

Omega Symbol: Words streaming from a magician's eyes and filling a blank book at which he is gazing.

There are energies that wish to come forth from you, communications that you need to allow to emerge. Your challenge is to not let your biases and rationalizations stop the process, and to keep your ego out of the way of what is happening. If you hesitate or stop to try to figure out what is going on you slow or blur the process, which wants to be clear and needs you to be its means of manifestation.

Pleiadian Symbol: The princess of a tribe welcomes strangers from afar.

A gentle and supportive openness to all new and unusual experiences. She is like the receptive cave of the Chandra Symbol that might invite potential travelers who have come down the river.

Chandra Symbol: A tremendous cave on the bank of a river.

Here is a great capacity to realize what is happening, what is going on in the world, and to see what is underneath it all. This degree makes a lot of connections between various energies, for it intuitively comprehends their interweavings. Almost (or at times absolutely) without thinking, ideas, imaginings and realizations dawn on this degree, coming forth sometimes fully formed and obvious, at other times cryptic and mysterious or uncertain. But in any way you look at it, creative, inspirational, and needing to be harnessed and used. There's a need here to nurture the highest and to attempt to bring it into realization, no matter how difficult the task or how often one has to once again right one's course.

Azoth Symbol: Men using their psychic powers to hurl spears great distances.

Intent which carries great pointedness and power. The spears are like the words streaming out of the magician's eyes of the Omega Symbol. One is able to express oneself in a way that can have long-term reverberations into the future.

Seed Degree: Aquarius - 28

The entrance to a vast complex of caves beneath a mountain. (Omega Symbol). Entering into the deeper reaches of ourselves we contact a level of spontaneous creativity and information, which, if we are attentive to it, can teach us much. A tapestry loom.

On it a half-finished tapestry. (Chandra Symbol). Realizing that seemingly set patterns can be changed if we so desire to do so, we become aware of the choice between holding to a particular way, or allowing the flow of energies to carry us somewhere else.

Fulfillment Degree: Capricorn - 10

Many strange and diverse objects are seen floating down a river. (Omega Symbol). Allowing our inner wisdom to come forth we find a wide array of various potentials which we may draw on in the act of creation.

A man drinking blood from the vein in a horse's leg. (Chandra Symbol). Through transcending the flow of time and entering into the realm of timelessness we are able to take in the vital essence of nature.

Omega Oracle

He had only to soften and still his vision and the downloads would begin, the words streaming forth from his eyes in the form of shimmering, flickering colors as they embedded themselves into the pages, which he continued to turn as needed. And he found that the downloads would begin whenever he willed them too - there seemed to be no end to the books that desired to find a home in the pages.

People said that the books were delightful, wondrous, full of wisdom. He himself never read them, for fear that the words might decide to abandon the pages, re-entering his eyes and returning the books to blankness.

Omega Symbol: A man is riding a horse north as he searches for the Kingdom of the Fairies.

Others may think what you are doing is impractical, or even unintelligible, but there is definitely a method in your madness. You are looking to connect with spiritual realms, whether you know it or not, and will only be fulfilled if you carry on your seeking regardless of the judgments and criticisms of others.

Pleiadian Symbol: An ancient crone and her shadow talking to each other.

Communing with the dark teacher within. Respect for the limitless nature of one's own wisdom. Delving deep into the hidden and shadowy aspects of one's own nature.

Chandra Symbol: A bodiless head asleep on the beach.

Far, far away is the Kingdom of the Fairies of which the bodiless head dreams. So silent and strangely passive an image for the sign Aries. But the sea is never still and dreams are afoot and the seeming stillness is an illusion. And we come to know, ultimately that the Kingdom of the Fairies is within and that all searches, no matter what their outer agendas, are quests to discover the self.

Azoth Symbol: An ancient culture is transporting gigantic stones.

Gargantuan efforts carried out carefully and patiently, the concern here being all concentrated on the purity and excellence of the end result rather than worrying at all about the time, energy and effort expended. This work is no more difficult than the work of the man in the Omega Symbol.

Seed Degree: Libra - 13

A horn of brass to be used as a hearing aid. (Chandra Symbol). In the meditative silence by the sea all voices of the universe become magnified.

Omega Oracle

The terrain is becoming more and more desolate and rocky. And the voice of the stream along which the man is riding his horse seems increasingly crystalline. The man feels he can hear directions in its voice, telling him that, yes, he is on the right track. The stream becomes smaller and smaller dwindling to nearly nothing until the man sees that it is being wept from a tiny pearl of incredible beauty that lies on the ground. Swallow me, whispers the voice, and I shall take you to the land you seek.
